

CASE STUDY

A new build 5 storey multipurpose Cristian Centre in Ilford with Auditorium and meeting rooms. Projecting and vertical brise soleil systems were used to suit the aesthetic and shading requirements of the building design. Our laminated glass systems allowed a range of colours to be used for the vertical fin over the main west facing entrance façade. To shade the south elevation horizontally projecting bays were installed over the windows with white opaque glass.