

Ikea Head Office

Architect: Scott Brownrigg
 Product: 150D VertiSunshading System

CASE STUDY

Contrasol were asked to provide a design for a retrofit solution to reduce unwanted glare and high levels of heat gain at the Ikea headquarters in Wembley.

The light weight nature of the system was directly fixed to the window structure providing a practical and effective system which blends into the existing aesthetic of the building.

