

CASE STUDY

Vertical aerofoil fin system used for screening the tearoom and kitchen area within open plan offices for News International in Thomas More Square. The fin angle was carefully designed to screen the kitchen area from the entrance foyer and the main office space while still making use of natural daylight through the fins to illuminate the space. This bespoke design using our 250mm wide fins provides an interesting balance between form and function.

CONTRAS

